

The Bedtime Boat

Jammies on. It's time to float.
Hop aboard the bedtime boat!

Winds blow north to lands of snow.
Bundle up and off we go!

Look on shore—three polar bears,
Walruses, and arctic hares.

Seals slide off an icy floe.
One swims by to say hello.

Belugas splash us with their tails.
Settle down, you silly whales!

The bedtime boat will cruise and roam
Until it's late. Now let's head home.

Stars shine brightly in the night,
Guide us back with twinkling light.

Gliding onto soft, white sand,
The final stop is sleepyland.
