

Little Hippo and Little Elephant

by Valeri Gorbachev

Little Hippo's friend, Little Elephant, had a wonderful trunk. He used his trunk to drink water from the river.

On hot days, Little Elephant gave them baths with his trunk. Splish, splash!

Little Elephant
could even pick
yummy bananas
with his trunk.
Little Hippo
wanted a trunk, too.

Then Little Elephant shared his bananas with Little Hippo. A good friend is even better than a good trunk!
